

OPENHOUSE

Saturday, November 20

VIRTUAL OPENHOUSE SCHEDULE

Presentations are 20-30 minutes in length (with the exception of the business presentations that will be 50-60 minutes)

Please note that the schedule is subject to change and it is recommended to review the session offerings before the event begins.

LIVE PRESENTATIONS

APPLIED COMPUTER SCIENCE & INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY - PRESENTATION ROOM

10:05am

Software Engineering

Learn about our two-year Software Engineering Technician and our three-year Software Engineering Technology programs. The technician and technology programs dive into a broad base of languages and technologies, including web development, databases, and cyber security.

10:45am

11:30am

Bachelor of Computer Science Honours Degree

This session provides an overview of our exciting Bachelor of Computer Science degree. Our degree is designated as an honours bachelor program and the program design includes co-op work terms. Join this session to learn about our degree and the areas of specialization.

12:15pm

Computer Programming and Data

Learn about our applied computer programs for programming including: Computer Programming, Computer Programming and Analysis, IT Innovation and Design, Computer Applications Development, Software Quality Assurance and Test Engineering, Mobile Solutions Development, Big Data Solution Architecture, and Computer Application Security.

1:00pm

1:45pm

Computer Systems and Technology

Learn about our applied computer programs for infrastructure, hardware, and systems including: Computer Systems Technician - Information Technology Infrastructure and Services, Information Technology Infrastructure, and Information Technology Network Security.

BUSINESS - PRESENTATION ROOM

Programs and Pathways for the School of Business

The School of Business offers a variety of programs that provide exciting opportunities for employment in your specific area of interest. In this session, learn about the many business programs that are available and how Conestoga can prepare you for an exciting career.

Programs and Pathways for the School of Business

The School of Business offers a variety of programs that provide exciting opportunities for employment in your specific area of interest. In this session, learn about the many business programs that are available and how Conestoga can prepare you for an exciting career.

COMMUNITY SERVICES - PRESENTATION ROOM

Graduate Certificates: Mental Health and Substance Use, Community and Social Service Management

Graduate Certificates provide an opportunity to continue your education while focusing on specific areas of specialization. Learn about the opportunities for graduate studies in Community Services.

Community Safety Programs

Explore Community Safety programs like Police Foundations, our innovative Community and Criminal Justice degree and our Pre-Service Firefighter program.

Community Integration Through Co-operative Education

Learn how this program is designed to provide individuals with exceptionalities and other significant learning challenges an opportunity to experience college life in a supportive environment.

Education Studies Programs

Explore programs within the area of education. Conestoga's Education Studies programs include Early Childhood Education, our exciting Early Learning Program Development degree and our Educational Support program.

Human Services Programs

Conestoga's Human Services includes the following programs; Social Service Worker, Recreation and Leisure Services and our Human Services Foundation program, designed to give you an introduction to this exciting field.

Protection, Security and Investigation

Interested in a career in protection, security or investigations? This program is where you start. Learn about how the Protection, Security and Investigation program provides a foundation for an exciting career.

Esthetician

Learn about Conestoga's new Esthetician program and what is involved in building an exciting career in the spa industry. The Esthetician program is an Ontario College Diploma and provides theoretical and practical learning experiences in the areas of personal care, specialized beauty, body treatments, nail care, and customer service.

CREATIVE INDUSTRIES - PRESENTATION ROOM

Creative Industries - Design Focus

The School of Creative Industries provides a mix of learning experiences to prepare you for a creative career. Our programs offer a blend of projects, assignments, guest speakers, collaborations, and field placements. These opportunities provide hands-on, real-life experiences and the chance to work with professional equipment and software. Conestoga offers a wide range of design-focused credentials that range from one-year certificates, to diplomas in Graphic Design and or Advertising and Marketing Communications, and a Bachelor of Design degree. Join this session and learn more.

Creative Industries - Animation, Game & Virtual Reality Focus

Conestoga's School of Creative Industries offers exciting career options that are geared towards professions in animation, game design and virtual reality. This session focuses on these opportunities and provides participants an opportunity to learn more about the great training facilities and equipment that students have access to.

Turn your passion into one of these areas for a fulfilling career. Graduates of our Animation program are prepared to work in TV, film, game, and online production. Game – Design graduates are ready to create games, apps, and simulations for use in the gaming industry, entertainment, education, and beyond. Conestoga's graduate virtual reality program brings all these related disciplines together to combine traditional and emerging technologies and create engaging immersive experiences.

Join this session to learn more.

Creative Industries - Interior Decorating and Visual Merchandising Arts Focus

Conestoga offers diplomas in Interior Decorating and Visual Merchandising Arts. Students of either program have dynamic environments to build the creative and technical skills needed to excel in these fields. Learning from industry experts, students will develop essential and practical skills through studio, lecture experiences, and guest speakers.

Creative Industries - Media Focus

Conestoga offers diplomas that prepare graduates to work in the exciting world of media. Our media programs prepare graduates for careers in TV, video, radio or journalism. Join this session to learn more and get answers to your questions.

Creative Industries - Design Focus

The School of Creative Industries provides a mix of learning experiences to prepare you for a creative career. Our programs offer a blend of projects, assignments, guest speakers, collaborations, and field placements. These opportunities provide hands-on, real-life experiences and the chance to work with professional equipment and software. Conestoga offers a wide range of design-focused credentials that range from one-year certificates, to diplomas in Graphic Design and or Advertising and Marketing Communications, and a Bachelor of Design degree. Join this session and learn more.

Creative Industries - Animation, Game & Virtual Reality Focus

Conestoga's School of Creative Industries offers exciting career options that are geared towards professions in animation, game design and virtual reality. This session focuses on these opportunities and provides participants an opportunity to learn more about the great training facilities and equipment that students have access to.

Turn your passion into one of these areas for a fulfilling career. Graduates of our Animation program are prepared to work in TV, film, game, and online production. Game – Design graduates are ready to create games, apps, and simulations for use in the gaming industry, entertainment, education, and beyond. Conestoga's graduate virtual reality program brings all these related disciplines together to combine traditional and emerging technologies and create engaging immersive experiences.

Join this session to learn more.

Creative Industries - Interior Decorating and Visual Merchandising Arts Focus

Conestoga offers diplomas in Interior Decorating and Visual Merchandising Arts. Students of either program have dynamic environments to build the creative and technical skills needed to excel in these fields. Learning from industry experts, students will develop essential and practical skills through studio, lecture experiences, and guest speakers.

Creative Industries - Media Focus

Conestoga offers diplomas that prepare graduates to work in the exciting world of media. Our media programs prepare graduates for careers in TV, video, radio or journalism. Join this session to learn more and get answers to your questions.

VIRTUAL OPENHOUSE SCHEDULE - page 2

Presentations are 20-30 minutes in length (with the exception of the business presentations that will be 50-60 minutes)

Please note that the schedule is subject to change and it is recommended to review the session offerings before the event begins.

LIVE PRESENTATIONS

ENGINEERING - PRESENTATION ROOM

10:05am

School of Engineering & Technology Overview

Conestoga's School of Engineering & Technology offers a comprehensive suite of engineering and technology programs to suit your interests and career aspirations. In this session, learn about our engineering and technology program clusters which include architecture, aviation, civil, construction, electrical, electronics/computer, environmental, interior design, mechanical, packaging, woodworking, and welding. Conestoga's School of Engineering & Technology offers a wide range of credentials, from one-year certificates, diplomas that are either two-years or three-year advanced diplomas, to graduate certificates and degrees. We have what you need for an industry-ready education.

Woodworking

Explore Conestoga's state-of-the-art Woodworking Centre and hear about why our woodworking programs provide you with the skills you need to succeed.

10:45am

Bachelor of Interior Design and Bachelor of Applied Technology - Architecture - Project and Facility Management

Does a career in Interior Design or Architecture interest you? This session is a great way to learn more about our degree programs in these fields. These degrees include paid co-op work terms and are designed to incorporate active learning through project-based curriculum, case studies, and capstone projects.

Mechanical Engineering

If you are interested in programs that focus on the area of mechanical engineering, this presentation will help you navigate the options available to you.

Aviation

Learn about Conestoga's fixed-wing and rotary-wing aviation programs offered in partnership with the Waterloo-Wellington Flight Centre.

11:30am

Power, Cyber and Electronic System Engineering - Bachelor of Engineering Degrees

Conestoga offers a variety of bachelor of engineering degrees focusing on complex systems and specific to power, cyber, and electronics. Each of these degrees includes paid co-op work terms and is designed to incorporate active learning that includes project-based curriculum, applied research opportunities, case studies, and capstone projects. Active learning allows students to apply theory to practice during their studies and results in graduates who are well-prepared for their career. Join this session to learn about these engineering degrees.

Technology Foundations

Join this session and learn more about Conestoga's Technology Foundations program. This unique program is designed to give students a solid foundation for those students interested in pursuing a career in engineering and are not sure of the area of focus they would like to build on or for students who need to obtain admission requirements to begin a diploma or a degree program in one of our engineering programs.

12:15pm

Welding

Learn about the variety of welding programs Conestoga offers to help you find a great fit as you prepare for your career.

Electrical Engineering

If you are interested in programs that focus on the area of electrical engineering, this presentation will help you navigate the options available to you.

1:00pm

Building and Mechanical System Engineering - Bachelor of Engineering Degrees

Conestoga offers bachelor of engineering degrees that focus on complex systems and specific to building and mechanical. Each of these degrees includes paid co-op work terms and is designed to incorporate active learning that includes project-based curriculum, applied research opportunities, case studies, and capstone projects. Active learning allows students to apply theory to practice during their studies and results in graduates who are well-prepared for their career. Join this session to learn about these engineering degrees.

Electronics Engineering

This presentation will focus on the variety of electronics programs available including the Electronics Engineering Technician program.

Packaging Engineering

This is a great opportunity to learn what career opportunities await you in this unique and exciting area.

1:45pm

Civil & Construction Engineering

Exciting career opportunities await you in the area of civil engineering and construction. Hear from our faculty about how you can be part of these programs.

HEALTH & LIFE SCIENCES - PRESENTATION ROOM

Health & Life Sciences Continuing Education Presentation

Find out what part-time education options are available for you as you consider moving your career from a Personal Support Worker (PSW) to a Practical Nurse (PN). In this session, learn about bridging your PSW credential to become a PN.

Personal Support Worker

The Personal Support Worker is the backbone of the emerging Covid-19 pandemic crisis. Learn how Conestoga can prepare you for a career in this exciting and important field.

Informatics & Life Sciences

This session will focus on our life science degree programs including: Bachelor of Applied Health Information Science (Honours), Bachelor of Environmental Public Health (Honours), Biotechnology Technician (Regular & Fast Track), and our Pre-Health Sciences Pathway programs.

Health Sciences

Learn about programs in the area of Health Sciences including: Fitness and Health Promotion, Hearing Instrument Specialist, Nutrition and Food Service Management, Occupational Therapist Assistant and Physiotherapist Assistant, Primary Care Paramedic, and Respiratory Therapy.

Health & Life Sciences Virtual Tour

Virtually explore Conestoga's state-of-the-art labs and learning spaces on this guided tour of our Health & Life Sciences area.

Nursing (McMaster)

Learn about Conestoga's Practical Nursing diploma program, McMaster's Nursing (BScN) at Conestoga and pathway options for both.

HOSPITALITY & CULINARY ARTS PRESENTATION ROOM

Culinary Arts Program Focus - Culinary, Baking and Pastry Arts, and Professional Cheese Making

Do you love creating tasty creations? This session will outline what it takes to begin and prepare for a career in one of Conestoga's Culinary Arts programs. Session participants will be provided information about our Culinary, Baking and Pastry Arts, and Professional Cheese Making opportunities. Our Culinary Arts programs feature practical, theoretical, and hands-on training. Students will gain the fundamental knowledge and techniques of quality preparation, an understanding of the complexity of leading the workings within these kitchens, and an appreciation of the work that goes into creating quality products. Conestoga is proud to deliver the hands-on training for these programs in our new state-of-the-art training facilities.

Hospitality, Tourism, and Event Management

Hospitality, Tourism and Event Management are exciting industries to be a part of and build your career. Conestoga provides exceptional training for those interested in working in the exciting and fast-paced world of any one of these areas. Our programs are designed to provide students with balanced training, combining theory and practical experience in the specific skills involved in being successful in these careers. Join this session to learn more.

Institute of Food Processing Technology

Learn about Conestoga's innovative and exciting Food Processing Technology plant and the programs it offers.

VIRTUAL OPENHOUSE SCHEDULE - page 3

Presentations are 20-30 minutes in length (with the exception of the business presentations that will be 50-60 minutes)

Please note that the schedule is subject to change and it is recommended to review the session offerings before the event begins.

LIVE PRESENTATIONS

10:05am

10:45am

11:30am

12:15pm

1:00pm

1:45pm

TRADES & APPRENTICESHIP - PRESENTATION ROOM

Trades & Apprenticeship Electrical and Powerline

This session explores the different electrical trades programs that Conestoga has to offer and our highly sought-after Powerline Technician program. Join this session to learn more and get answers to your questions as you consider these careers.

Trades & Apprenticeship Construction Trades

Conestoga offers a variety of programs that focus on trades that support the construction industry. Our construction focused programs are intended to provide students with hands on experience and knowledge about the trade. In this session, faculty will provide an overview of the different programs offered and participants will have an opportunity to ask questions.

Trades & Apprenticeship Machining and Tool & Die

This session explores the different areas within machining that Conestoga offers to prepare you for a career in this trade.

Trades & Apprenticeship Motive Power

Automotive mechanic, truck and coach, heavy equipment... we offer it all! Find out which one is right for you.

Trades & Apprenticeship Millwright and Mechanical Maintenance

Learn about the variety of programs available in this exciting and highly employable industry.

STUDENT SERVICES - PRESENTATION ROOM

General Information Session - Canadian Students

A general information session for Canadian students who have questions about Conestoga.

Program and Career Advising Information Session

Hear from our knowledgeable Program and Career Advisors who can help you make informed program choices when applying to Conestoga.

Accessible Learning

This session will provide students an opportunity to learn how our team is here to support their learning needs.

Continuing Education

Conestoga has a variety of part-time programs for career advancement as well as general interest. Learn more about these opportunities during this session.

Admissions - Canadian Students

Are you a Canadian student who has questions about the admissions process? Are you looking for information about confirming your offer or what programs are still accepting applications? This presentation will help you navigate the process and get your questions answered.

Residence

Thinking of moving away to attend college? This session is a great opportunity to learn about residence and the services available.

Financial Services - Canadian Students

Canadian students with questions about OSAP, scholarships, bursaries and other financial concerns, you will not want to miss this presentation.

Accessible Learning

This session will provide students an opportunity to learn how our team is here to support their learning needs.

INTERNATIONAL - PRESENTATION ROOM

Admissions & Services - International Students

Are you an international student interested in studying in Canada? This presentation is for you. Learn about the admissions process and the supports in place for you.

Admissions & Services - International Students

Are you an international student interested in studying in Canada? This presentation is for you. Learn about the admissions process and the supports in place for you.

TOURS - DOON & CAMBRIDGE

Kitchener-Doon

A virtual guided tour of the Kitchener-Doon campus

Cambridge

A virtual guided tour of the Cambridge campus

Kitchener-Doon

A virtual guided tour of the Kitchener-Doon campus

TOURS - WATERLOO & GUELPH

Waterloo

A virtual guided tour of the Waterloo campus

Waterloo

A virtual guided tour of the Waterloo campus

Guelph

A virtual guided tour of the Guelph campus